1. Greetings and introductions
2. Daily routine and present simple
3. Shopping, food and prices
4. Work English: e-mails, meetings and polite requests
5. Travel basics: airport, hotel and directions

Aula 1

By the end, you will introduce yourself, greet people and use the verb to be correctly.

- Hello / Hi — Olá / Oi
- Good morning / afternoon / evening — Bom dia / Boa tarde / Boa noite
- How are you? — Como vai? Answers: I'm fine, thanks. And you?
- Nice to meet you — Prazer em conhecê-lo
- See you later / Goodbye — Até logo / Tchau

- My name is Ana. / I'm Ana.
- I'm from Brazil. — Sou do Brasil.
- I'm a student / I work at a store.
- How about you? — E você?

- I am (I'm) — you are (you're) — he/she is (he's/she's) — we/they are
- Negative: I'm not tired. / She isn't here.
- Question: Are you ready? / Where is the office?

Note: in English, adjectives always need the verb: I am busy (and never just "I busy").

Write a short dialogue and say it out loud:

- A: Hi! I'm Marcos. What's your name?
- B: Hello, Marcos! I'm Laura. Nice to meet you.
- A: Nice to meet you too. How are you?
- B: I'm fine, thanks. And you?

t; Tip: practicing out loud matters more than reading. Record yourself on your phone and listen.

Can you introduce yourself in 4 sentences using am/is/are? Move on to the next lesson.

Aula 2

Talk about your daily routine using the present simple.

- wake up (acordar), get up (levantar), have breakfast (café da manhã), go to work (ir trabalhar), have lunch (almoçar), get home (chegar em casa), go to bed (dormir)
- Times: at 7 o'clock (às 7h), in the morning, in the afternoon, at night

- I / you / we / they work — he / she / it works (add -s!)
- I work at a bank. / She works at a bank.
- Negative: I don't work on Sundays. / He doesn't drive.
- Question: Do you work here? / Does she speak English?

Common mistake: "She work" — wrong. With he/she/it, the verb takes -s in affirmative sentences.

- every day (todo dia), usually (geralmente), sometimes (às vezes), never (nunca)
- What time do you get up? — Que horas você levanta?

Describe your day in 5 sentences, then say them out loud:

- I usually get up at 6:30.
- I have breakfast and go to work at 7:30.
- I have lunch at noon.
- I get home around 6 p.m.
- I go to bed at 11.

Write your routine using usually/sometimes/never with correct -s on third person. Move on!

Aula 3

Handle shopping, food ordering and prices in everyday situations.

- 15 = fifteen, 50 = fifty (careful with the sound!)
- How much is it? — Quanto custa? — It's ten dollars.
- It's on sale. — Está em promoção.

- Can I help you? — I'm just looking, thanks. (Só estou olhando)
- Do you have this in blue / in a larger size?
- I'll take it. — Vou levar. / Where is the checkout?

- A table for two, please.
- Can I see the menu? / What do you recommend?
- I'll have the chicken sandwich. (Use I'll have to order — natural and easy)
- The check, please. — A conta, por favor.

- Server: Hi! Are you ready to order?
- You: Yes. I'll have the cheeseburger and a lemonade, please.
- Server: Anything else?
- You: No, that's all. How much is it?
- Server: It's $12.50.

t; Tip: in cafés, to go (levar) or for here (comer aqui). "Coffee to go, please" is a phrase you will use immediately.

Practice both dialogues out loud twice: one at a store, one at a restaurant. Move on!

Aula 4

Communicate at work: short e-mails, useful meeting phrases and polite requests.

- meeting (reunião), deadline (prazo), e-mail, schedule (agenda), co-worker (colega), boss (chefe), report (relatório)

- Subject: Meeting on Friday / Question about invoice
- Opening: Hi John, / Dear Ms. Smith,
- Body, direct: I'm writing to confirm our meeting on Friday at 10 a.m. Could you send me the report before then?
- Closing: Thanks a lot. / Best regards, + your name

Politeness formula: replace "Send me the report" with Could you send me the report, please? — always softer.

- Sorry, I don't understand. Could you repeat that?
- Could you speak more slowly, please?
- I agree. / I see your point, but...
- Let me check and get back to you. — Deixa eu verificar e te retorno.

- Hello, this is Ana from Company X.
- Could I speak to Mr. Silva, please?
- One moment, please. / Can I take a message?

Write a 4-line e-mail: confirm a meeting, ask for a document politely, thank the person. Re-read and check every "Could you...".

Did you write and polish one short work e-mail using the polite formulas? Move on!

Aula 5

Survive travel situations: airport, hotel, directions and emergencies.

- Where is the check-in counter?
- I have one suitcase to check in.
- Is this seat taken? / Where is gate 12?
- Boarding pass = boarding pass (same word!), passport = passport.

- I have a reservation under Silva. (Tenho reserva no nome Silva)
- What time is checkout? / Is breakfast included?
- The Wi-Fi password, please.

- Excuse me, where is the train station?
- Go straight / Turn left / Turn right / It's next to the bank / It's across the street.
- How far is it? — É longe? / Is it walking distance?

- Sorry, I don't speak English very well. Could you repeat, please?
- Can you write it down? — Pode anotar?
- Help! / I need a doctor. / Call the police, please.

Role-play at home: check in at a hotel (5 lines) and ask for directions (4 lines). Say both out loud — travel English is spoken English.

t; Tip: numbers matter at check-in (room 305 = three-oh-five, flight B77 = B seventy-seven). Practice numbers out loud.

You have greetings, routine, shopping, work and travel. Review all 5 lessons, then generate your certificate!
